Worldwide Response to 9/11 to be described by State Department Curator

Third Anniversary of Terrorist Attacks Remembered with Exhibit & Free Public Lecture at Carter Presidential Library

ATLANTA, GA – The worldwide response to the September 11, 2001 attacks will be described during a free public lecture at the Carter Presidential Library & Museum on Thursday, September 9th.

Dr. Priscilla Linn, the curator of the United States Diplomacy Center, U.S. Department of State will speak at 8 p.m., in the Carter Library & Museum Theater. She will be joined by Michael Boorstein, the Director of the Diplomacy Center.

The Diplomacy Center, in collaboration with the Museum of the City of New York, created the exhibit “After 9/11: Messages from the World and Images of Ground Zero.” It includes artifacts and condolence messages sent from around the world following the attack. It also includes dramatic photographs from Ground Zero taken by Joel Meyerowitz, the only photographer given free artistic access to the site.

Those attending Dr. Linn’s presentation will be able to see the exhibit “After 9/11: Messages from the World and Images of Ground Zero” at no charge. Doors to the museum will open at 7 p.m. for viewing the “After 9/11” exhibit. Dr. Linn’s talk will begin at 8 p.m. and last approximately one hour.
